

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Valley to headline the Convergence Music and Art Festival 2025 in Downtown Oshawa

Oshawa, ON – February 18, 2025 – The Convergence Music and Art Festival returns to downtown Oshawa on Saturday, September 20, 2025, bringing an exciting lineup of music, immersive art, and community-driven experiences. This free all-day festival celebrates the city's vibrant artistic culture, showcasing local talent alongside renowned Canadian musicians.

Leading the festival's lineup is the 2025 Juno-nominated alternative pop band Valley. Known for their energetic performances and chart-topping hits, Valley has amassed over 1.2 billion streams worldwide and toured extensively across North America, Asia, and Australia. Joining them is Juno Award-winning singer-songwriter Aysanabee, whose powerful storytelling and soulful sound have captivated audiences across the country. Their performances highlight Convergence's commitment to featuring top-tier Canadian talent while also providing a stage for Oshawa's deeply rooted creative community.

Beyond the music, Convergence 2025 offers a variety of interactive experiences, including immersive art installations, three live music stages, live professional wrestling, a Punk Rock Market, and Nerd Alley, a space for gaming, comics, cosplay, and collectibles. These attractions create an inclusive, high-energy environment reflecting Oshawa's unique artistic identity.

"Valley and Aysanabee represent some of the best of Canada's thriving music scene, and we couldn't imagine a better fit for Convergence 2025," said Krista Licsi, Festival Organizer.

"Valley's infectious energy and anthemic sound, paired with Aysanabee's raw and emotionally resonant storytelling, make for a truly unforgettable night of music. Their sounds speak to the heart of what Convergence is all about—bringing together different genres, perspectives, and artistic expressions to celebrate Oshawa's rich creative community."

The festival is dedicated to supporting local talent alongside national artists, providing a platform for emerging musicians and artists to share their work. Applications for musicians and artists are now open, inviting creatives from across the region to participate.

Stay tuned for additional lineup announcements, event details, and partnership activations leading up to September 20, 2025. For more information on participation, visit www.convergenceoshowa.com.

About Convergence Music and Art Festival

The Convergence Music and Art Festival transforms Oshawa into a vibrant hub of creativity, community, and connection. This two-day celebration of music and art is a bold showcase of Oshawa's authentic and unique culture, drawing talent and audiences from across the region and beyond.

The Oshawa Tourism division of the Greater Oshawa Chamber of Commerce proudly presents the Convergence Music and Art Festival.

For media inquiries, interviews, or sponsorship opportunities, please contact: Krista Licsi klicsi@oshawatourism.com
905 291-4417

Follow Convergence Music and Art Festival on social media for the latest updates:
@convergenceoshawa on Instagram and Facebook

#ConvergeWithUs #ConvergenceOshawa #Convergence2025